My dear Mr Fraser,

Thanks for your letter of the 6th instant about arrangements for tea ~~& ices with~~ The arrangements suggested ~~you~~ therein appear to me most suitable. There would be no difficulty in. Excluding the public including the ticket holders ~~as also~~ from the show ~~on the 5th February~~ like the Royal visit even the Exhibitors should be excluded from the Conservatory to maintain the strictly private nature of the Royal visit ~~I have asked for~~ ~~~~ regarding this to Mr Cameron, and~~ ~~~~ ~~~~ ~~~~ ~~~~ ~~~~ I understand from your letter that tea for the staff need not be provided

Yours sincerely

To the Conservatory will be illuminated on the evening of the 7th Feb, the ticket-holders may, I think, be let in after 6-30 PM

My dear Sir,

It is intended to provide for the Reception of His Royal Highness inside the Prince Albert Conservatory on the Evening of the 5th February next It is thought best to effectively arrange a suitable Space inside it, surrounded by Foliage plants flowers like a garden arbour

The Dewan would be glad to have your suggestions as regards the arrangements in detail There will ~~be~~ be no need whatever for Carpets or elaborately upholstered furniture The arrangements should be of the simplest kind yet the best

It is also intended to exclude the Public — Even the Ticket-holders — from the Show which will be Opened to ~~from the next day onwards~~ from 6-30 PM onwards

It might be necessary to keep out the Exhibition also at the time of the Royal visit which would perhaps be purely of a private nature The Duchess believes that these arrangements would be quite feasible and would be glad to have your opinion on the matter as early as practicable

Yours truly
Duncan

My dear Mr Fraser,

In connection with the Lal Bagh Show, the following points may be definitely settled

(I) Should not the band be present when ~~the~~ Regt. band, then Royal Highness visit the Show

(II) Should the judges who usually complete their work rather late in the afternoon be allowed to remain in the Show at the time of the visit ?

(III) May not H R H the Prince of Wales be solicited to present the Prince of Wales' medal on the occasion ?

IV] May not Their Royal Highness be presented with boquets as they leave the show? If so, by whom?

2 The Judges may also be excluded from the show ~~after the close of the competition~~ as the visit to have a private inspection of the show. The other suggestions are in my opinion, worthy of favourable consideration. For receiving the medal only the person concerned need be sent for.

Yours sincerely,

My dear Dewan,

I am desired to reply as follows to the questions asked in your D O letter No 414 dated 10th December 1905, regarding Lal Bagh Show -

The band should certainly be present when Their Royal Highnesses visit the Show, but Mr Fraser does not think that the Judges should be in the show at the time of the visit.

If the princess of Wales is asked to present the Prince of Wales' medal on the occasion, this will mean a ceremonial which Mr Fraser thinks should be avoided , Their Royal Highnesses may certainly be presented with bouquets by Mr Cameron, but special care should be taken not to use strong or heavy scented flowers in the bouquets, and such flowers should, if possible, not be allowed any where near where the Princess is likely to remain for

for any length of time as, for instance, by the tea table

My dear Sir,

Your letter No 430, dated the 8th Instant, about the arrangements I am to convey to you His Majesty's instructions regarding the four points raised in your letter

(I) The band should be in attendance at the time of Their Royal Hy hnesses' visit to the Show

(II) The Judges should not remain in the Show at the time of the visit

(III) The presentation of a medal would amount to a ceremonial which is inadmissible

(IV) Their Royal Hyhnesses may both be certainly be presented with bouquets by you, but special care should be taken not to use strong or heavy scented flowers in the bouquets, and such flowers as

I possible must be allowed anywhere near where H R H the Princess is likely to remain ~~an~~ for any length of time as, for instance, by the Ba table

Please let me have a reply for the Diwan's information that you have duly noted these instructions

It is quite feasible to give the Royal party afternoon tea if Mr Cameron makes proper arrangements for the privacy of some portion of the Conservatory

But one must do things of this sort - a certain style when Royalty is present & I would be obliged

Cl No. 14

My dear Sir,

Your letter, dated the 15th Instant, about tea arrangements in the Lal Bagh

At that has been decided is that there is no need for any carpets or elaborately upholstered furniture. This however, does not preclude the use of handsome furniture, tea service &c for the occasion. The arrangements should decidedly be such as would be befit Royalty.
